ENCO Announces Patrick J. Campion Appointed Sales Director for Central Region

Southfield, Michigan, April 10, 2006: ENCO Systems Inc., a leading worldwide provider of Digital Audio Delivery Systems, today announced that Patrick J. Campion has rejoined ENCO as Sales Director for the Central Region. Patrick most recently spent three years as the Operations Manager for Salem Communications in Minneapolis. Prior to his position at Salem, Patrick was a technical support specialist at ENCO. With over ten years experience in the radio world, he's done everything from on-air to engineering to sales. According to Patrick, "I'm excited to be able to sell a product that I've been using day in and day out for nearly seven years and truly believe in. The ENCO family is one that I'm proud to again be a part of". Patrick will be based at ENCO's headquarters in Southfield Michigan.

ENCO's Vice President of Sales and Marketing, Don Backus said "When we look to grow our sales department, we always look for real hands-on experience in automation and broadcasting. With Patrick we get both. He will be a real asset and great resource to ENCO clients and prospective clients all over the Midwest".

ENCO Systems is a leading provider of Digital Audio Delivery Systems for demanding television and radio organizations worldwide. ENCO is headquartered in Southfield, Michigan with offices in California, South Carolina, and the United Kingdom and retains distributors throughout the world.
